Lucian and Ira Lucas had attended church at Midkiff, and on their return home, in company with Miss Martha Williams, the party stepped at the home.

home, in company with Miss Martha Williams, the party stopped at the home of William Adkins. The younger Lucas boy, Ira, was in love with the daughter of Adkins, who had frequently forbade Lucas visiting his home. Sunday night when Lucas, his brother, and Miss Williams called at the Adkins home Adkins of filtered his daughter to the Adkins followed his daughter to the front door. Seeing that it was Lucas who desired admittance, he forbade him entering, but invited the remainder of the party in. This so enraged Iss Lucas that he drew his pistol and fired into the doorway, the supposition being into the doorway, the supposition being that he intended to kill the father of the girl. Lucas' bullets went wild however and the state of the state wild, however, and one of them hit his sweetheart, Miss Adkins. She fell in the hallway, seriously but not fatally injured. Mr. Adkins by this cide speak of it in the highest for its quick effect in cleansing talp of dandruff and also for its exce as a general hair-dressing. the tragedy. McCue Sees Visitors. Former Mayor J. Samuel McCue, who, unless the Court of Appeals interferes, will be hanged on January 20 for the murder of his wife, was visited in his cell, in the Charlottesville jail, Saturday by all the members of his family. The mained for over an hour. The condemned man seemed to enjoy an elaborate dinner, which was sent from his Park street residence. Others who called to pay the compliments of the season and to cheer him up were his brother, Edward O. McCue, an wife; Miss Mc-Cue, a cousin; Mrs. Marshall Dinwiddie and a distant lady relative. The gifts were and a distant lady relative. The gills were mostly books to help the prisoner to while away the hours. While a colored congregation was holding a Christmas celebration in a church at Stouts Mountain, a mining camp near Hanceville, Ala., a volley of shots was fired into the church from the outside, Rev. Mr. Clay, the pastor, was shot through the hips and will die. Two other men were probably fatally wounded. The other negroes hurried out of the building, and ran in every direction. Later the dead body of Henry Jett, a white prizes was found near the aburch. white miser, was found near the church with a revolverlying near by. It is sup-posed he was a member of the shooting party, and was accidentally killed by of his companions. John Jett, brother of the dead man, and Frank Blackwell, both white miners, have been arrested in connection with the affair.

Scared Girl; Shot Her Father. Awakened from a sound sleep at 2 o'clock Sunday morning Annie Konelski, aged 16. whose father, Stanaslous Konelski, is a tenant on the Knight farm, Brooks' Hill, near Baltimore, found herself confronted by a negro pointing a pistol. He threatened to shoot if she stirred, but the girl screamed and awoke her father. The negro ran downstairs and hid in the pantry. Konelski followed, but as he entered the diningroom the negro fired at him. The old man fell seriously wounded and the negro escaped. The girl, in her nightto a neighbor's and gave the alarm. Her M. Ruben & Sons, robe, ran through a sleet and snow storn wounded father was removed to a hospital. He says he knows the negro, who was arrested last night.

Baptized in Raging Blizzard.

Undaunted by the raging blizzard, 21 converts of the German Baptist faith were baptized in the freezing waters of Beaver Creek at East Berlin, Pa., Sunday. A big congregation braved the storm to witness the ceremony and to applaud the stoical spirit of the new members. Rev. Orville V. Long and Rev. C. W. Baker cut a hole in the ice, other which was nine inches thick, and, standwhich was nine inches thick, and, standing waistdeep in the water, immersed the converts, the ceremony lasting about by J. C. "DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve," writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it as be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush. N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless, I could not walk for two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a sear. Sold by all druggists.
